

Orientation meeting of NGO's of Cox's Bazar on Localization and Development.

Venue: COAST Cox's Bazar Management and Training Center

Date: 2 November 2017, 10.30 a.m

Civil society leader and Executive director Mr. Rezaul Karim Chowdhury suggested to increase knowledge on development and localization issues at a meeting on 2 November 2017, Thursday; if not, we will not progress at our local level advocacy and development activities. The meeting was moderated by Rezaul Karim Chowdhury of Co-Chair, cxb cso ngo Forum and executive director, COAST Trust.

CXB cso-ngo Forum meeting was held at COAST regional office, Kalatoli, Cox's Bazar.

Abu Morshed Chowdhury, Co-Chair, cxb cso ngo Forum and executive director, PHALS present in the meeting. Focal person, executive directors and representatives of local and national NGOs were participated in the meeting.

Rezaul Karim Chowdhury was presented and discussed the following topics in the orientation meeting.

1. Strengthening Civil Society and promoting localization agenda.
2. Aid effectiveness to development effectiveness: Paris (2005) to Nairobi (2016).
3. How CSO participate in development effectiveness cooperation, the Istanbul principles (2010).
4. World Humanitarian Summit (2013 to 2016): Key Results.
5. Grand Bargain.