

Draft outline, 17 th June V1	This draft outline will be updated in time to time. Name which have mentioned here are proposal only, it is confirmed only when it has written (confirmed).
Title of the webinar	World Refugee Day : Together We Heal, Learn and Shine
Date, time and form	20th June 2021, 11h00 to 12h30, in virtual form, zoom software will be provided at least 24 hours before of the event. Simultaneous English and Bangla translation will be available for the participants.
Organizers	Coxsbazar CSO NGO Forum (www.cxb-cso-ngo.org)
Primary participants.	CCNF members and other NGOs leaders and staff members who are working in Coxsbazar and Rohingya response.
Primary objectives	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> (i) To discuss how best peaceful co-existence could be promoted until repatriation of Rohingya community. (ii) To discuss how Rohingya and host community will be encouraged to take best care for environment recovery in the locality. (iii) To discuss how international community will be encouraged for step up their effort for dignified repatriation of Rohingya community. (iv) To discuss how best localization there by Whole of Society Approach could be promoted in Rohingya response. (v) To promote common minimum principles for cooperation could be promoted among the diverse nature of actors in Coxsbazar Rohingya response.
Background	In the backdrop of 2017 August Rohingya influx CCNF has formed with the objectives to promote human rights and gender rights based civil society in Coxsbazar with positive engagement with all actors especially with government. COAST is being working as secretariat. Since the beginning CCNF promote awareness on human rights and refugee rights during 20th June world refugee day and 10th December human rights day. CCNF and COAST organized social media campaign, seminar and webinar week before of 20th June. Please see following links, on observation of 20th June World Refugee Day in course during 2018, 2019 and 2020. Urge for an all-inclusive integrated plan for Cox's Bazar to Fight COVID19 : Opinions of speakers at a virtual seminar organized by Coast on the occasion of World Refugee Day Multi-year planning, education and more support for host communities, until repatriation Governments must work together for Rohingya Refugees repatriation with dignity and rights We do like to continue this trend. On top of these, individual members organizations being organizing different programs in camp and host community level, for a greater awareness in this regard.
Guest of honors / Panel members	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Ms. Shireen P Haq, Naripokkho (Confirmed) 2. Mr. Gowhar Nayeem Warha, Disaster Forum (Confirmed) 3. Mr. Arjun Jain, Principle Coordinator, ISCG 4. Mrs. Soo Jin Rhee, Deputy Representative, UNHCR (Confirmed) 5. Mr. Manuel Moniz Pereira, IoM in Coxsbazar (Confirmed) 6. Mr. Pius Mulonzya, NGO Platform Coordinator (Confirmed)
Speaker	Four leaders from CCNF members, on four specific issues
Moderators	Rezaul Karim Chowdury and Abu Morshed Chowdury, Co-Chairs CCNF
Methodology	At the outset of the webinar the moderators will welcome guest and participants, will be telling objectives and ground rules. And will place three questions / asks related to the webinar objectives.

	After that they will invite panel members one by one, each panel members will be requested to take 3-4 minutes, in between one speakers from CCNF will be invited to speak within 2-3 minutes, may be then one or two participants will be invited to take floor for 90 seconds. In last part, panel members will be invited to give conclusion remarks each for 90 seconds. Each of the moderators will give summary and conclusion of the session each for 90 seconds.
Social media advocacy.	Whole session will be made in vedio and with the speeches of panel members and CCNF leaders there will be short vedio (2 minutes) will be made and place especially in twitter and face book especially for greater awareness.
Press release	A press release will be made for Coxsbazar and Dhaka media after the events.
Information available	www.cxb-cso-ngo.org and www.coastbd.net
Communication	Jahangir Alam, Member Secretary CCNF, +8801713328827, Jahangir.coast@gmail.com